

THE OLD BURYING GROUND.

For the people of Duxbury this old graveyard should have a particular interest, as most of the old colonists buried there have living descendants in Duxbury to-day. This is especially noticeable in such old colonial names as Alden, Brewster, Delano (De la Noye) Wadsworth, Sampson, Soule, Bradford, and many other familiar names of well known families in our town at the present time.

Cemeteries

While there are but 120 graves which are mentioned in this catalogue, it is within the remembrance of residents now living, when the yard was full of stones now gone to decay, and without doubt there is scarcely a foot of ground which has not been used by the first settlers for burial purposes.
